The General Terms and Conditions apply to all Events organized by WRS and are supplemented by the Special Terms and Conditions applicable to the corresponding Event. In case of contradiction between the General Terms and Conditions and the Special Terms and Conditions, the Special Terms and Conditions will prevail. Clients and Participants are expected to acquaint themselves with both the General Terms and Conditions and Special Terms and Conditions before making any booking.

The mere fact of placing a booking implies the acceptance of each and every one of the provisions of this document. The Terms and Conditions will apply without exception to every Participant taking part in an Event, whether as an individual or as part of a group booking, whether as an invitation or as a purchase. The booking confirmation (as defined above), the General Conditions of Use (in case of purchase through the website), these Terms and Conditions and the mandatory "Liability Acknowledgment and Assumption of risk Form", represent the entire agreement between WRS and the Client that has made the booking (if appropriate) and each Participant with respect to the Event. Clients placing a group booking must ensure that all relevant provisions which apply to their Participants (including drivers, team personnel, staff and accompanying guests) are communicated to them beforehand and that each Participant is eligible to participate.

The Clients will be responsible towards WRS, the F1 Team (as the case may be) and the Circuit Manager and agree to indemnify and hold harmless any or all of them if any Participant has provided false information, wrongly filled in any document, and didn't read the various documents. WRS may appoint third parties to assist with the organization, logistics and running of the Event. Such third parties shall act as representatives of WRS and shall have authority, on behalf of WRS, to make all necessary decisions in operating and managing any and all aspects of the Event.

By confirming a booking (as defined above as «Booking Confirmation»), the Client and/or each Participant are agreeing to be bound by the entire agreement as defined above. Upon receipt of a Booking Confirmation, WRS will issue an invoice for the amounts owed (as the case may be). Places on the Event will only be secured and confirmed upon receipt of full payment and all requested documents. For payment details and cancellation charges, please see paragraphs 4 and 10 of the current General Terms and Conditions.

In the event of any amendment to these Terms and Conditions, the new provisions shall apply as soon as they are notified to the Client and/or Participant, to all pending orders, except in the event of legal obligations.

unwanted, a full refund will be offered to those who have a confirmed booking. As an alternative, WRS can also propose to the affected Clients new financial conditions in order to secure the operation of the Event. Any travel and accommodation expenses incurred as a result of the cancellation or postponement of the event will not be covered by WRS under any circumstances.

WRS cannot be liable for any delay of the Participant in his travel arrangements which could result to his/her absence at the start of the Event. In case the Participant is not present at the start of the Event, WRS has the right to refuse the Participant from all or part of the activities and this shall not give rise to any compensation nor refund.

12 PARTICIPANT'S PACKAGE CONTENT

- 12.1 Unless options have been booked or special package has been agreed with WRS, Event package does not include any travel logistics, hotel accommodation, catering or any other services not specified in the commercial offer.
- 12.2 Under no circumstances shall WRS be liable for any personal expenses or ancillary costs incurred (e.g. mini-bar, use of hotel facilities etc.) or for any damage caused to the hotel and/or restaurant by any Participant or Guest during their stay. Any such expenses must be settled by the Participant when checking out. All return flights or other travel costs to and from the Event place shall also be the responsibility of each Client.

13 CHANGES TO THE EVENT PROGRAMME

- 13.1 Whilst WRS takes every care to ensure that the Event will follow the scheduled programme as notified to Participants, the nature of the programme means that it may be subject to change. WRS reserves the right to make amendments to any part of the schedule and/or services provided as considered reasonably necessary whether for safety reasons or otherwise.
- 13.2 WRS reserves the right to make changes to the Event running schedule if weather conditions affect the safe conduct of any of the scheduled on-track activities. In this particular case, subject to Event availability and to the approval by WRS, the unrealized parts of the on-track activities could be eventually postponed to the next scheduled Event date of the current year. If the report in the current year is not possible, a credit note corresponding to the parts of the on-track activities not performed will be carried over the next year. In case of a credit note, Participants acknowledge that the amount of this credit note will be reduced due to the inherent fixed costs specific to each Event date.
- 13.3 If the Participants are late and/or are not complying with the timetable of the Event and/or are driving in an inappropriate manner on the track causing track interruption or intervention (red flag, spin...), WRS may be forced to reduce the running schedule and without any right to be compensated for anyone.
- 13.3 Any interruption or shortening due to the Participant, as well as any services included in the package not used by the Participant's choice, will not give rise to any refund, whatsoever the reason.

14 VIDEO AND PHOTOGRAPHY

- 14.1 Unless the confidentiality of the participation has been expressly requested in writing to WRS by a Participant, the Participants acknowledge and accept that they may be filmed or photographed during the Event. Videos or photos of Participants and their cars may be used by WRS, the F1 Team or the Circuit Manager for commercial and promotional purposes at any time after the Event. Participants hereby consent to be filmed and/or photographed for these purposes without entitlement to any payment or other form of compensation.
- 14.2 Although Participants may give consent to the use of their image in photographs taken at the Event, Participants retain the right to request the removal of their photo at any time. If a Participant decides at a later date that he/she no longer wishes WRS to use his/her image, the Participant can contact WRS who will take the necessary steps to comply with Participant's request. This approach is part of WRS's commitment to respect Participants' choices and their rights with regard to their personal data, in accordance with the regulations in force.

- 14.3 Participants further agree not to alter, obscure, add to, or remove any visual element from photos or videos taken during the Event — including, but not limited to, WINFIELD or partner logos, branding, or any identifiable feature on helmets, suits, cars, or equipment. Any exception to this rule must be expressly authorized in writing by WRS and may only be granted in exceptional cases with properly justified reasons.

15 LIABILITY

- 15.1 Despite the instructions/regulations laid down by WRS, vehicles operating at high speed can be dangerous and cause damage. This risk can never be completely avoided (even with the instructions/regulations laid down by WRS), and the Participant must acknowledge this risk.
- 15.2 Participants are personally and indefinitely liable for any direct or indirect material damage caused to WRS and/or the Circuit, which would occur as a result of their fault, imprudence, negligent behavior. In such circumstances, WRS and/or the Circuit Manager shall have the right to invoice Participants for all necessary costs until full compensation for such damage.
- 15.3 In application of article L321-3-1 of the French Sport Code, material damage caused to a Participant by the fact of something that another Participant has under his/her custody cannot give rise to any compensation by this Participant, WRS or the Circuit Manager. It is specifically agreed that there will be no seeking of responsibility in case of a collision between Participants, so that any Participant cannot claim an exemption from damage payment in case he/she would be the victim in a crash that has caused damages to his/her car or material.
- 15.4 Participants are liable, even without proof of any fault on their part, for any direct or indirect physical injury caused to another Participant, a WRS' or Circuit Manager's employee or contractors, when driving their vehicle during an Event.
- 15.5 In the event that a Participant suffers material or physical damage during an Event, WRS and/or the Circuit Manager's liability may only give rise to compensation for his/ her loss under prior proof of WRS and/or the Circuit Manager inexcusable fault.
- 15.6 Any injury suffered by a Participant may be aggravated by any rescue operation that may be necessary in case of accident and/or emergency during an Event, for which the Participant would fully assume the associated costs, without such aggravation being attributable to WRS and/or the Circuit Manager.
- 15.7 The Participant must ensure that he/she is not carrying any valuable personal items that could be damaged or stolen. WRS and/or the Circuit Manager cannot be held responsible in such an event.
- 15.8 WRS and/or the Circuit Manager are only bound by a security obligation of means and not of result.

16 INSURANCE

- 16.1 In accordance with the French Sport Code (Article L-321-1, especially), WRS has undertaken an insurance through its insurance broker ASSURACING, to insure the organization of such an Event, through the civil liability guarantee contract n°RC2004020 underwritten by ALBINGIA.
- 16.2 Nevertheless and in accordance with Article L.321-4 of the same above mentioned code, WRS informs and encourages Participants of their interest to subscribe their own life and health individual insurance policy that covers the bodily injuries that motorsport can potentially expose them to. Each Participant shall be responsible for taking out his/her own personal travel insurance.
- 16.3 Additionally, WRS encourages Participants to subscribe their own insurance contract to cover damages caused to third parties (third Participants, cars, Team Personnel, Circuit, facilities, accommodation, and any ancillary equipment) and for which Participants are liable according to paragraph 15. If needed, Participants can contact ASSURACING (info@assuracing.com) to subscribe to a tailored insurance solution that meets their specific needs.

17 DATA

- 17.1 WRS, acting as data controller, will process and handle the personal information of each Participant which is either collected by the Client making a group booking and then submitted to WRS as part of the requirement set out in clause 2.3 or provided directly to WRS by each Participant as part of his registration to the Event. Due in particular to incompressible and non-refundable costs committed by WRS to organize the Event, no refund or compensation will be made. For the avoidance of doubt, if a Participant meets all of the eligibility criteria but cannot successfully perform and complete the standard safety procedure to the satisfaction of WRS, he/she can be refused from all or part of the on-track activities.

2.5 The successful performance to the standard safety procedures remains at the sole discretion and satisfaction of WRS. Its decision shall not suffer from any disputes nor a way to claim a refund or any kind of compensation. The standard safety procedure consists, inter alia, in completing the emergency extraction procedure from the vehicles.

3 DRIVER EQUIPEMENT

3.1 For Driving Experience Events or Passenger lap experiences, WRS will provide all protective clothing and equipment required for the Event. Participants must wear this at all times as required by WRS. For the avoidance of doubt, Participants will not be permitted to wear any protective clothing or use any equipment other than that provided by WRS unless expressly authorized by WRS and under specific conditions.

3.2 For all other Events, unless otherwise specified by WRS, each Participant is responsible to provide its own protective clothing and equipment compliant with current FIA competition standards. 3.3 Should the Participant not be able to provide part of all of the equipment or not at sufficient standards as required in paragraph 5.2, WRS can provide the equipment at cost.

3.4 Personal driver equipment must not display any conspicuous logo, acronym, or motif that could hurt the image of the Winfield's brand and its partners (especially with religious or political undertone or rival organizations, etc.). For these purposes, WRS reserves the right to hide temporarily such logo or motif for the duration of the Event. In addition, WRS may request the Participant to display a specific visor strip on the Participant's personal helmet for the duration of the Event.

4 VIDEO AND PHOTOGRAPHY

4.1 Participants and Guests are allowed to film, photograph and/or record their participation to the Event at the condition that any such images or recordings are used only for private and non-commercial purposes (unless otherwise agreed with WRS prior the event). All cars used during the Event are valuable high-performance vehicles of significant value. Accordingly, each Client shall be liable for any damage caused to a car (or any ancillary equipment) as a result of his/her fault, negligence, recklessness, or failure to comply with instructions and briefings received on the day, or from the the same of its Participants (in the event of a Group booking). In such circumstances, WRS shall be entitled to invoice the Client for all necessary repair costs until full compensation.

6 CAR DAMAGES

6.1 Each Participant is totally financially liable for any damage caused to the cars that have been entrusted to him/her, this regardless of the Participant's responsibility, including in, but not limited to, the following cases: going off track, driving over abrasive portions, hitting cones, contact, collision, etc. Payment for the material (parts, bodywork, and workforce) caused in each accident shall be made, by the Client, to WRS under the conditions stated in paragraphs 6.6 and 6.7.

Any damage found and noticed by the referring mechanic after a running session shall be imputed to the Participant who was driving the car during the session prior to the mechanic's observation. A Participant who has not had his/her car and tyres checked before his/her running sessions will not be able to claim that the damage does not fall on him.

6.4 It is specifically agreed that there will be no seeking of responsibility in case of a collision between Participants, so that any Participant cannot claim an exemption from damage payment in case he/she would be the victim in a crash that has caused damages to his/her car.

6.5 Although WRS will make its best endeavors during the Event to repair the car or make available a spare car to the Participant in order for him/her to continue his/her running programme, WRS cannot be held liable for non-completion of the running programme as a consequence of car damages. No refund nor compensation will be made.

6.6 In case of damages, WRS will evaluate the car at the workshop and issue a damages report with all the repair costs which includes car parts, bodywork, tyres, consumables and workforce. The damages report cannot be contested by the Participant and/or the Client. Payment of the total costs is due without delay and upon receipt of a detailed invoice from WRS.

6.7 In addition, any off-track that results in driving on the abrasive parts (run-offs) of the Circuit and/or any abnormal tyre wear caused by an inappropriate driving (wheel blocking, spin...) shall automatically and without any contestation result of the invoicing of a set of tyres to the Client. Any gravel incident will be invoiced €500 exclusive of taxes.

6.8 Upon request of a Participant before the Event, WRS could eventually propose insurance options to cover damages on a car. Availability of such option cannot be guaranteed. If an insurance option is available, conditions of execution will always depend on the type of cars and of the Event's conditions.

- 6.9 WRS will always invoice the Client who has made the initial Booking, and the Client shall be responsible for payment of such damages to WRS. If the Client is also the Participant, he or she is solely responsible for the payment. In the case of a group booking, the Company/team that made the booking is fully responsible for any damages caused by its Participants. The Company/team shall pay WRS directly, and may seek reimbursement from the Participants at its own discretion.
